"DAY BY DAY"

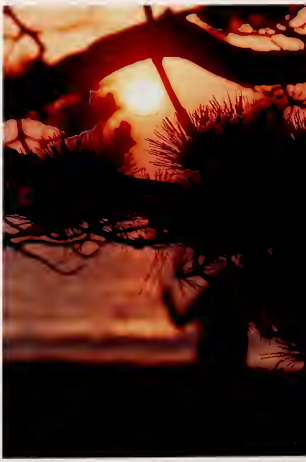
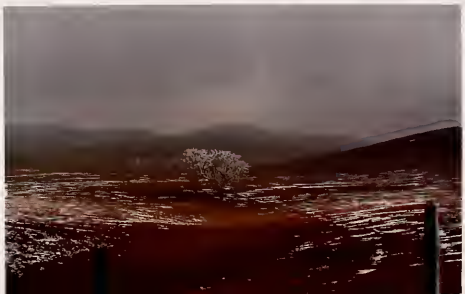
Day by day
Oh Dear Lord,
Three things I Pray
To see thee more clearly
Love thee more dearly
Follow thee more nearly
Day by Day.





Autumn spreads her
cloak in bright waves
over the land.
Red and gold dappling
the tired trees,
the air is crisp as a
blighted summer creeps
away.
Autumn's perfume is the essence of burning leaves
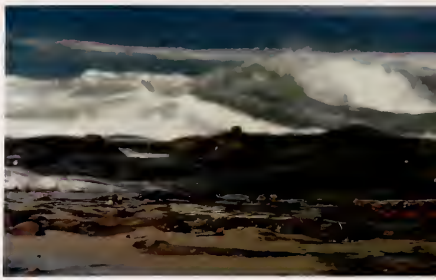
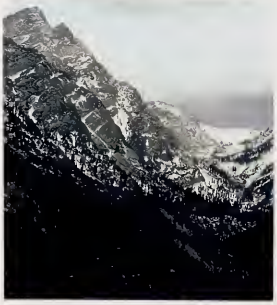
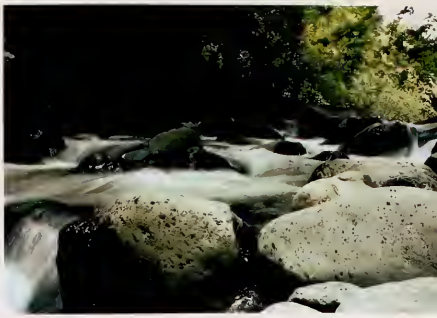
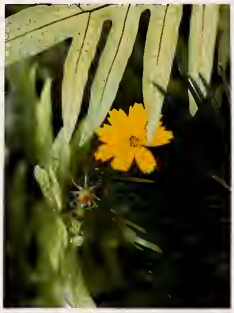
and chrysanthemums
and her signature,
an exotic full moon. .



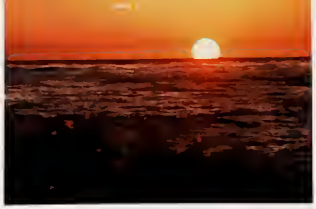


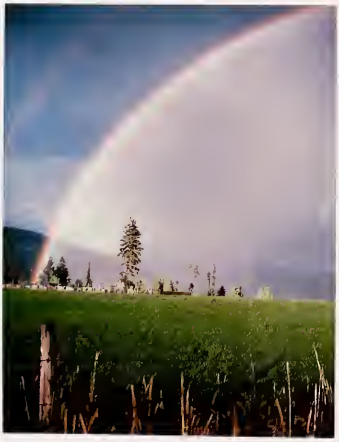
Winter darkness blesses
the earth with silence
and wraps it in a coldness
that makes the brittle
air snap.
Her ageless promise is of
deep mindless peace
while her storm-lashed
skies lull the world
into a dark, sweet sleep .





A flower opening quietly
in a hidden field,
awakens Spring like
a kiss.
Sleepily, she stretches
out her branches
and shakes free her
ice-locked rivers.
Tying a rainbow in her
cloudless hair, Spring
teases the world into
song
and uplifts a grass-
green face to the sun.





A laughing Summer
opens the door to a
golden world—
frail clouds sail across
a flame-blue sky and
Her brief mornings
stretch like lazy cats
only to succumb to the
magic of crystal evenings
trimmed in starlight.
But Summer's heated
passion is quenched
by a single Fall breeze.

ORIENTATION

Mt. St. Marys is famous for it's hospitality and never was this more evident than Sept. 4-8 during Orientation week. Helpful and friendly, the MSMC students made moving in a lot easier for some very lost new girls. The perfect denouement to a lovely week was the dinner with both students and faculty complete with crystal and fascinating conversation.

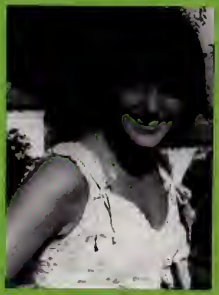
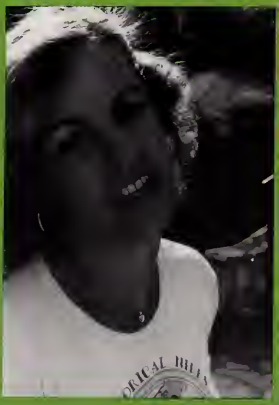
THOSE FIRST HOURS





Sister Magdalen Coughlin PRESIDENT

One of life's great paradoxes is that some portions of it seem long enough for us to get used to, while others seem to evaporate in the moments themselves. Some suggest this can be accounted for by a desire to relish the deep enjoyment of special times, resulting in our not wanting the passage of that particular time to stop. One need not live very long, however, to realize this is a futile wish.

A more possible approach to increasing one's enjoyment of life and each moment of our time might be to make the long stretches, the ordinary times, more delightful by changing the way we view things. After all, we are the ones who see, or do not see, some things, some persons, or some times as special and delightful.

Perhaps, then, one of the most valuable things we can gain from our education and reflection is a mind and spirit large enough and refined enough to see the specialness of all things, and thus, of every time in life. It is when we come to see in this way that each day and each time can make the next all the richer.

PRESIDENTS TEA

The Presidents Tea on Sept. 7 was an event complete with graciousness. The elegant Doheney campus was the setting and tours of the famous mansion highlighted the evening along with a speech by Sr. Magdalen Coughlin.

MSMC "LUAU"

HORIZONS

Horizons on Sept. 17 featured Art Seidenbaum as the guest speaker, and his theme concerned Los Angeles Bicentennial 1780-1980. A Colorful slide show served to compliment beautifully the witty and perceptive remarks made by the famous and rightfully so Mr. Seidenbaum. Thought-provoking speeches were also made by Sr. Magdalen and Dr. Sechooler.

OCTOBERFEST

Boy Howdy! The Sophomore Social night with it's "Urban Cowboy" theme was a real humdinger. Delicious food and rip-roaring entertainment complete with balloon rustlers and an impromptu community sing made it a rowdy break from studying!!

SOPHOMORES

Hi Y'All!

Founder's Day commemorates the august beginnings of Mount St. Mary's and this year the proud tradition was continued with an Alumnae luncheon and a special mass. Adding the perfect touch were the various exhibits on display, documenting the continued progress of the school.

Fleur De Lis

The Fleur-de-Lis Ball, an annual event at the Mount, was held this year on October 31st, in the elegant atmosphere of the Wilshire-Hyatt. Resplendent in beautiful dresses and accompanied by charming escorts the ladies of Mt. St. Mary's sipped cocktails, dined sumptuously, and danced to a multi-talented band.

This year the Kappa Delta Chi sorority celebrated their 51st year as an organization with an enthusiastic 5 weeks of pledging capped by their infamous "Hell Night". The "piece de resistance" was the Presents Ball held at the Proud Bird restaurant in L.A. Not only a social sorority, the Kappas are also noted for their community services.

On Wednesday, Feb. 18, the Freshman class hosted a "sports theme" social night for the resident's benefit. They served classic picnic style fried chicken while some very odd looking athletes gave a stirring rendition of "Take me out to the ball game" which had the residents hopeless with laughter. The residents supported the freshman effort by coming as their favorite sports "Superstars!"

Blood Drive

The Mt. St. Mary's blood drive this year was a heart-warming success with a phenomenal turnout by both students and faculty. Held in the Rumpus room, the nurses processed volunteers at a steady pace while those awaiting their turns joked and studied to pass the time.

This year's Thanksgiving Mass held on Nov. 25th in the Campus Center was peaceful and rich in emotion; it brought light and joy to the spirit. Aptly entitled "All Good Gifts" it recalled the many blessings that we who are the lifeblood of the school enjoy and share with others

FACULTY

An appropriate synonym for "teacher" might be "giver". These gallant individuals, year after year, work to impart their copious knowledge to their students and along with that, an understanding which is not always appreciated. In this brief moment let us thank them for their wisdom, interest, and involvement in our lives and assure them of our boundless love and respect.

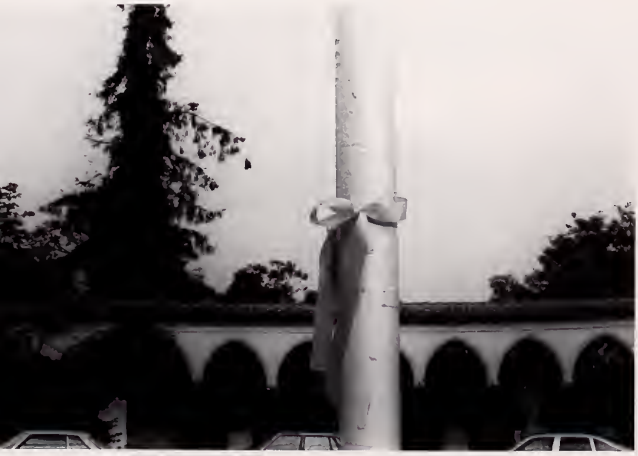
1980

Whether your intention is to explore the artistic advantages Los Angeles has to offer or perfect a skill that will make a difference in today's career-conscious world, Interterm is the answer. For one all-too-brief month students at M.S.M.C. have the opportunity to explore a variety of fascinating subjects, increasing both knowledge and experience while at the same time enjoying a slower paced school life that allows plenty of free time for "extracurricular" activities . . . ! The highlight of Interterm had to be the "Jump for Life" jump rope marathon for the Heart Association.

WELCOME HOME HOSTAGES!



A tense situation that lasted for a nerve-racking 444 days ended at last on January 20, 1981 as our long-awaited hostages left Iran for the refuge of West Germany and soon after returned to us weary but courageous. In their usual spirit of participation our students tied yellow ribbons around everything that wasn't moving, sat glued to televisions and radios throughout the dorms and gave thanks in unison at a special mass held in rejoicing for the hostages safety.

Just at that moment when the world is theirs, the Senior class wavers between full emergence into "the outside world" and the cozy, warm haven the Mount has provided for 4 years; years that have passed all too quickly when one is looking back on them but they'll grow up and go on as Seniors do everywhere, and at a time when they're gaining a hard-won independence, something equally precious is being lost to them forever .
